The Creation of the World

The story begins in Genesis with the account of creation. God, the Creator, brings the universe into existence through His spoken Word:

1. Genesis 1-2 details the creation of the heavens and the earth, culminating in the creation of humanity—Adam and Eve—in God's own image.

The Fall and Its Consequences

The fall introduces a central problem: humanity's estrangement from God, which the entire biblical story seeks to address.

The prophets continue to speak of hope and restoration:

1. They foretell a future messianic king who will bring justice, peace, and salvation.
