Despite these difficulties, the director's unwavering vision resulted in a film that is both visually striking and emotionally raw.

Visual Style and Cinematic Techniques

Dark, Gritty Aesthetic

Polanski's Macbeth is distinguished by its bleak, almost noir-like visual palette. The film employs high-contrast black-and-white cinematography, emphasizing darkness and shadow to mirror the moral ambiguity and internal turmoil of its characters. The use of naturalistic lighting creates a sense of immediacy and intimacy, immersing viewers in the characters' psychological states. Camera Work and Composition Polanski's camera work is purposeful and deliberate. He employs tight close-ups to capture the characters' emotional breakdowns, allowing viewers to intimately observe their descent into madness. Wide shots frequently depict the characters dwarfed by their surroundings, symbolizing their insignificance in the face of fate and supernatural forces.
