5. Legal Milestones

Major Events in the Road to Civil Rights

Understanding the sequence of major events is crucial in grasping the movement's progression.

Brown v. Board of Education (1954)

This landmark Supreme Court case declared that racial segregation in public schools was unconstitutional, overturning the "separate but equal" doctrine established in Plessy v. Ferguson. It marked the beginning of the end for legal segregation and inspired further activism.

Montgomery Bus Boycott (1955-1956)

Led by Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King Jr., this year-long boycott challenged segregation on public buses in Montgomery, Alabama. It resulted in a Supreme Court ruling that segregation on public buses was unconstitutional and showcased the power of nonviolent protest.

Civil Rights Act of 1964

This comprehensive legislation outlawed discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin in employment, education, and public accommodations. It was a major legislative victory for the movement.

Voting Rights Act of 1965

This law aimed to eliminate barriers such as literacy tests and poll taxes that prevented many African Americans from voting, thus securing their voting rights nationwide.

Historical Context and Early Civil Rights Movements

Post-Reconstruction Era and Segregation

After the Civil War and Reconstruction (1865-1877), many gains in civil rights for African Americans were rolled back through the implementation of Jim Crow laws. These laws enforced racial segregation in public spaces, schools, transportation, and more, creating a system of institutionalized discrimination. Key Points: - Segregation was legally sanctioned, leading to unequal facilities and opportunities. - The Plessy v. Ferguson (1896) Supreme Court case upheld "separate but equal" doctrine, legitimizing segregation. - African Americans faced voter suppression through poll taxes, literacy tests, and intimidation.

Early Civil Rights Activism

Despite oppressive laws, early activists laid groundwork for future movements. - Booker T. Washington emphasized vocational education and accommodation. - W.E.B. Du Bois advocated for immediate civil rights and higher education. - Organizations such as the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), founded in 1909, aimed to challenge segregation and discrimination through legal action.
