Understanding the Concept of Merchandising the Anointing

What Does It Mean to Merchandise the Anointing?

Merchandising the anointing involves creating and selling products or services that embody the spiritual power, presence, and message of God's anointing. It's about translating the intangible—divine presence and spiritual blessing—into tangible items that believers can connect with, carry, and share. This approach aims to extend the reach of the anointing beyond the pulpit or prayer room into everyday life.

The Biblical Foundation for Merchandising

While the term "merchandising" might seem secular, the Bible provides examples of spiritual items being sold or exchanged:

1. Gold, frankincense, and myrrh were gifts brought to Jesus, signifying the value of spiritual offerings (Matthew 2:11).
2. The exchange of spiritual gifts in the early church, such as Paul's instructions on spiritual gifts, emphasizes the importance of sharing and distributing spiritual blessings.

3. Marketplace references like Jesus overturning the money changers' tables in the temple (Matthew 21:12-13) highlight the importance of maintaining integrity when engaging in commerce related to spiritual matters.

Approaching merchandising with reverence, integrity, and a focus on edification aligns with biblical principles.
