Who Was Carl Panzram?

Before delving into the manifesto itself, it's vital to understand the man behind the words. Carl Panzram (1891–1930) was an American serial criminal and murderer known for his violent crimes spanning over a decade. His criminal record included theft, arson, rape, and murder, with an unapologetic attitude toward his actions. His life was marked by abuse, institutionalization, and an apparent descent into complete moral nihilism. Panzram's own accounts, including his autobiography and various confessions, paint a portrait of a man who rejected societal norms and sought to destroy what he saw as the hypocritical and corrupt fabric of civilization. His writings reveal a man who believed in the supremacy of raw instinct and individual will, often dismissing the concepts of morality and justice.

The Origins of the Panzram Manifesto

The so-called "Panzram Manifesto" is not a formal, published document but rather a collection of Panzram's writings, confessions, and statements made during his incarceration, particularly during his time on death row. It was primarily authored in the late 1920s and early 1930s, as Panzram faced execution for his crimes. The manifesto is often gleaned from his autobiography, "Killer: A Journal of Murder," as well as testimonies and writings he left behind. It reflects his worldview at its most radical — a nihilistic rejection of societal constructs
